

Dear SCBWI Author:

The Houston SCBWI 2015 Conference is rapidly approaching. As the conference bookstore, Blue Willow Bookshop is looking forward to making this the best possible conference for all attendees. The contract for the conference states that all book sales must go through the bookstore, ensuring accurate accounting and profit sharing for the chapter. If you desire to have your titles available for purchase, we would appreciate your help and quick response to this letter. Attached are two documents that will help make sure everything runs smoothly. Please complete the title information sheet (for consignment sales, also include the second sheet) and return to:
